VICE PRESIDENT RAPELJE OF N. P. IS OPTIMISTIC

BUSINESS GOOD ON NORTHERN PACIFIC MAY ADD TO SHOPS

RAILWAY COMPANY HAS UNDER CONTEMPLATION IMPROVE-MENTS AT BRAINERD

CHANGES MAY BE MADE TO BOILER ROOM RUNNING OVER COU- PLE OR THREE YEARS

That improvements at the Brainerd railway shops are destined in the near future was evidenced by the interview gained by the Dispatch from J. M. Rapelje, of St. Paul, vice president of the Northern Pacific railway company and in charge of operations of the railway.

"The company is considering an improvement to the boiler rooms to run over a couple or three years", said Mr. Rapelje. "I do not know if it will be started this year or not," he said. Final action rested in the hands of the board of directors.

It has been known locally that the Northern Pacific railway contemplated a quarter of a million dollars improvements in Brainerd early last year, including the start of the power plant, and this was checked upon the beginning of the strike.

The fact that the railway company has now again under contemplation improvements in Brainerd is heralded as a very good sign. Under the budget plan of the company, as is usually done, an allotment is made each year to carry out improvements, thus making possible the carrying out of a large project in several years.

Accordingly if a large improvement of a half million was contemplated, it would be covered by two or more annual appropriations.

Business Good on Railway
In Vice President Rapelje's party were H. E. Stevens, chief engineer, and Silas Zwight, mechanical superintendent for lines east of Paradise, Mont.

Their tour of inspection of the entire system had covered three weeks and Brainerd and its large shops visited yesterday, was on the last lap of the journey.

Business on the system was reported as good. There is great activity in the lumber business on the coast.

Local Conditions
Conferring with him at Brainerd was W. H. Gemmell, president of the Minnesota & International railway.

The party traveled in two business cars. It was really an office in transit, for the vice president and other officials had stenographers, and other assistants and each stop made included inspection of railway properties and conferences with local officials.

It is such trips as these, carried out faithfully in every detail, which gives Vice President Rapelje such an insight in the actual working of a transcontinental railway system.

Some Railway Figures
Some figures on the immensity of the Northern Pacific railway are of interest. The following gleaned cover conditions as of January 1, 1923 and do not include the large purchases of additional equipment recently placed.

The system has a mileage of 6,656. It has approximately 1,800 stations.

Locomotives of all kinds number 1,439. There are 46,559 freight cars, 1149 passenger cars, and 4,323 miscellaneous cars.

(By United Press)
Rock Island, Ill., April 7.—H. M. Schriver, mayor of Rock Island; Tom Cox former chief of police, and Laurence Pedigo, were today found guilty by a jury of conspiracy to evade gambling laws.

The trial was the first growing out of vice investigations in this city. Pedigo was alleged to be the chief lieutenant for John Looney, who is leading the investigation.

Intermediate sentences were imposed on all the convicted and Cox was fined $2,000. The trial was in progress more than six weeks.

Domestic Issues Discussed by President Harding

DRAINAGE OF ROME DISAPPEARS BENEATH GAY BUNTING; CAPITAL DRESSES UP FOR WEDDING OF PRINCESS YOLANDO AND COUNT DI GERGOLO

(By United Press)
Rome, April 17.—The drabness of Rome disappeared today beneath gay bunting and flags as the capital dressed up for the forthcoming wedding of Italy's beloved Princess Yolanda to Count Calvi di Bergolo.

The marriage takes place Monday in the Quirinal chapel, banned to royalty for such purposes since 1870. Princess Yolanda, like Princess Mary of Great Britain, is marrying a commoner of her choice instead of into the royal family of another nation. For a time the engagement of Yolanda and the Prince of Wales was rumored, especially since the princess went to the London horse show as the prince's guest.

What she really went for, it was learned, was to see her loved Count Bergolo triumph in the jumping events.

A fortnight later their engagement was announced.

Yolanda, eldest daughter of King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Elena, gives up all rank to marry the man she loves. She loses her title of princess and will be known as the Countess di Bergolo, outranked by many ladies of the court.

King Victor also heartily approves the match, and wanted to name his daughter fiancée the Duke di Sugno, but Yolanda would not have it.

ROCHESTER'S CIVIC BODIES MAY UNITE

Rochester, Minn., April 7.—Preliminary steps were taken here to consolidate all civic organizations into one group in an effort to save the Rochester Civic and Commerce association, when members of the association met with the Kiwanis club.

The consolidation, it was said, may mean the elimination of all other organizations, including the Kiwanis club, to strengthen the one association. A budget of $37,000 is immediately necessary to operate the association, it was revealed.

E. M. McMahon, former secretary of the St. Paul association, was one of the speakers. He urged the uniting of all forces for the common good of one organization.

BELIEVE REVENGE SLAYING MOTIVE

(By United Press)
New York, April 7.—Believing revenge the motive in the brutal slaying on Staten Island of Mrs. Irene Blandino, 21, and Bessie McMahon, 18, of Utica, New York, the police today concentrated their efforts on a hunt for Italian gangsters. The women were stabbed and slashed to death some time Friday morning and their bodies carried by automobile to an unfrequented road and thrown out.

Investigation has revealed that gangsters who killed Mrs. Blandino's first husband 18 months ago threatened to wreak further vengeance. Mrs. Blandino's death is believed to be the fulfillment of this threat, while the killing of her companion was for the purpose of eliminating a possible informant.

Three men are being detained pending solution of the affair. They are James Blandino, husband of one of the two victims, Rosario Delanzo, an employee in his barber shop, and Alfred Monteparo.

MAIL BANDIT IN 3RD ESCAPE

BAFFLES ARMED GUARDS, HOS- PITAL ATTENDANTS AT ATHENS, GA.

(By United Press)
Athens, Georgia, April 7.—Gerald Chapman, New York mail bandit and much wanted fugitive, had hundred of pursuers baffled today following his escape for the third time from armed guards and hospital attendants.

Although a corp of expert man-hunters took up the trail of his latest escape yesterday immediately after Chapman staggered out of a local hospital here, the one time leader of New York's underworld was still at large today.

Poses searching the vicinity of the hospital during the night momentarily expected to stumble on the convict, weakened by a bullet wound received following his escape from the Atlanta penitentiary.

Chapman is also suffering from lack of food and a high fever. Authorities believe he would be unable to go far without medical attention or aid from confederates in close touch with the situation involving his daring escapes.

DRY AGENTS ARE MOBBED

POLICE RESERVES CALLED TO RESCUE IN JERSEY CITY THIS AFTERNOON

(By United Press)
New York, April 7.—Several hundred men mobbed a squad of prohibition agents in Jersey City this afternoon following a raid on the saloon of M. J. Olori.

Prompt arrival of reserves from two police stations saved the dry agents from serious injury.

The agents confiscated liquor valued at $50,000.

REFUSES TO HALT SLANDER SUIT

(By United Press)
Washington, April 7.—Secretary of War Weeks today refused to halt the army investigation into the slander suit brought by Captain and Mrs. Edwin H. Randle against Colonel A. L. Conger.

The suit, which was dropped yesterday by the Randles, was alleged to be because of slander of Mrs. Randle's character.

Both Randle and Conger are army officers at Ft. Sam Houston, Texas. Weeks received a telegram from Mrs. Randle today asking that the army inquiry be dropped.

RAIL TRAFFIC TIED IN KNOTS AS SIX INCHES OF BEAUTIFUL FELL

THUNDER AND LIGHTNING AC- COMPANIED SNOW STORM IN ST. PAUL

(By United Press)
St. Paul, April 7.—The heaviest continuous snowfall of the year blanketed this section here early today—the 17th day of spring.

Rail traffic was tied in knots as the snow continued. More than six inches fell here between midnight and morning. Thunder and lightning during the early hours this morning when the snow storm was at its height was an unaccountable phenomenon of the weather.

From three to seven inches of snow fell over central Minnesota. It extended as far north as Duluth in the eastern half of the state.

Three inches of snow at Staples and St. Cloud was reported.

While railroads were running mostly on time, they were hampered seriously in the vicinity of the Twin Cities. Seven inches of snow in the yards held up movements.

Towns forty and fifty miles south of here reported hail, thunder, lightning, rain and snow.

Fargo, Grand Forks and Winnipeg reported a little snow.

The unusually heavy snowfall here was believed to be a record for April. In the Twin Cities street cars were delayed and some lines were paralyzed. Snow plows were unable to cope with the fall. Thousands of workers walked miles to their jobs. Others waylaid milk wagons, trucks and taxicabs.

RABBITS DON'T CLIMB TREES, BUT THEY DO SWIM, REPORT MADE

(By United Press)
Monroe, Wis., April 7.—Maybe rabbits don't climb trees, but they do swim, at least Charles Smith and Arthur Frederick, Green county engineers, say they do.

The two engineers were at work investigating damage done by recent floods when they saw a bunny leap into the water, swim around and then make its way back to land.

(By United Press)
Chicago, April 7.—"Liquidation" was the word when Grommes and Ulrich decided to pass out of the picture as a corporation and distribute assets to stockholders. The company, dealers in fine whiskey and rye, on a large scale before prohibition, was permitted by government officials to distribute several hundred thousand dollars worth of "assets" to stockholders in finally winding up its business affairs.

More than 100 trucks guarded by scores of policemen and federal agents carried cases and barrels from the storehouse where it has been kept under government seal since prohibition, to waiting cellars.

The dividends to each stockholder of 20 shares was reported to have been nearly fifty barrels.

HENRY FORD BUYS SIX BAUXITE MINES IN SOUTHERN GEORGIA FOR A SUM ESTIMATED AT FROM $500,000 TO $1,000,000, REPORT

(By United Press)
Chattanooga, Tenn., April 7.—Henry Ford has purchased six bauxite mines in southern Georgia for a sum estimated at from $500,000 to $1,000,000 it became known here today.

Ford was in Albany, Georgia today on business connected with his new purchase, it was learned here. The former owner of the mine is a local man whose name was not disclosed.

Ford's purchase is believed here to indicate that he still expects to get Muscle Shoals, as Ford's original plans were said to include the manufacture of aluminum which is made from bauxite at Muscle Shoals. There are many bauxite deposits in Northern Georgia and Eastern Tennessee and it is said that Ford plans to acquire these also.

'NOT GUILTY' VERDICT GIVEN

IN SECOND TRIAL OF ALLEGED PARTICIPANTS IN HERRIN MASSACRE

(By United Press)
Marion, Ill., April 7.—A verdict of "not guilty" was rendered in the second trial of alleged participants in the Herring massacre, shortly before midnight.

The jury took only one ballot on each of the six accused men. The decision was returned in Judge D. T. Hartwell's court after six hours and 55 minutes deliberations. The trial lasted nearly two months.

Union miners of Williamson county hailed the verdict with joyful celebration. They were confident that none of those indicted in connection with the killing of 22 non-union coal miners here last June would be convicted. However, the state intends to continue its prosecution. All of those acquitted will again face trial on charges of murder, States Attorney Delos announced.

The prosecution, in the hopes of obtaining convictions, included in the first two trials the men against whom they had built up the strongest cases.

In the trial ending last night, the accused men were alleged specifically with the slaying of Antonio Mulovich, a world war veteran. The defendants were Hugh Willis, James Fontenetta, Oscar Howard, James Brown, Bert Grace and Otis Clark.

76 INDICTMENTS NOLLED

Marion, Ill., April 7.—Charges of murder and conspiracy against 76 residents of Williamson county growing out of the Herring massacre were dismissed by Circuit Judge D. T. Hartwell today.

The indictments were nolle prossed on request of Delos Duty, states attorney, following failure to obtain a conviction on the second trial. Indictments charging larceny growing out of indictments in connection with the massacre were allowed to stand and the state may later attempt to obtain some convictions on these accusations.

"The county has been under a tremendous expense already and although we have done our utmost to prove to two juries that those men were murderers and responsible for the riots, we have failed." Duty stated in asking the court that indictments be nolle.

"I am convinced it will be impossible to get convictions in this county regardless of the evidence".

(By United Press)
Atlanta, Georgia, April 7.—A committee of three, composed of Emperor William J. Simmons, Imperial Wizard B. W. Evans and J. M. Georges were invested with control of the Ku Klux Klan in a decision handed down by Circuit Judge C. D. Thomas here today.

This committee, the judge ruled, will conduct the affairs of the secret order until a hearing on Colonel Simmons petition to have him placed in absolute authority over the organization is held.

FORMS BASIS OF SPEECHES MADE ON PRESENT TOUR

'OUR FIRST CONCERN IS DOMESTIC AFFAIRS', HE SAID AT BANQUET

'WE NEED NOT WORRY ABOUT RELATIONS WITH THE REST OF THE WORLD'

(By United Press)
Augusta, Ga., April 7.—Domestic issues largely will form the basis for President Harding's speech making tour and his campaign for re-election while international affairs will be kept in the background.

In Mr. Harding's first speech of his vacation here last night, he made it clear that he believes domestic questions overshadow all others in importance.

"Our first concern is domestic affairs," he said, speaking at a banquet. "We need not worry about our relations with the rest of the world. I tell you with great pride and confidence that they were never better."

The first concern of the American people is to help their own country, the president declared.

Topics of the tour and campaign will be the conditions of the farmers, the railroads and the soldier bonus.

Mr. Harding talked of various congressional blocs but stated that "the great menace to the perpetuity of the republic lies in bloc formation." He appealed for an end to sectional feeling.

CLAIM DRUG TRAFFIC AT FORT SNELLING

(By United Press)
St. Paul, April 7.—Eight indictments will be returned by the federal grand jury in cases next week against men implicated in alleged drug traffic at Ft. Snelling, among others stationed there.

This was the declaration today of Major M. A. Pfaffen of Ft. Snelling, who has been working with federal agents for some time to curb drug vendors, attempting to make addicts of soldiers to provide a market for their goods, he said.

Army authorities took on an active part in the investigation of the light cases. They said many soldiers bought drugs merely to obtain evidence against the vendors.

Colonel A. W. Bjornstad, commandant said only two users of drugs had been discovered at the post where about 1,000 men are now stationed.

Songs that reach your heart are the simple ballads that sing of life's joys, hopes and sorrows. Popular music may come and go, but "Old Kentucky Home" will live forever; as long as there are sweethearts,

"Love's Old Sweet Song" will voice youth's happy dreams.

When played on the

Hobart M. Cable Player Piano

these delightful old songs fairly thrill one with their sheer melodic beauty. For you play with the artist's correctness, and, expression being wholly within your control, all the emotions of your heart find outlet, for the Hobart M. Cable "places all music at your finger tips."

See, hear, and play, this most advanced of all player pianos;

"Wait a Minute" Irritates Many People

Does your office girl sometimes "get Brown on the line" and then ask him to "wait a minute" while she calls you to talk to him?

Did you ever stop to consider that Brown may not like this very well? He may think that you are imposing on him.

Such practice irritates many people. They don't like to be told to "wait a minute" when they answer the telephone.
They think their time is as valuable as that of the person calling them.

Are you thoughtlessly taking the chance of losing
business or social friends by such a practice?

"Wait a Minute" Irritates Many People

Does your office girl sometimes "get Brown on the line" and then ask him to "wait a minute" while she calls you to talk to him?

Did you ever stop to consider that Brown may not like this very well? He may think that you are imposing on him.

Such practice irritates many people. They don't like to be told to "wait a minute" when they answer the telephone.
They think their time is as valuable as that of the person calling them.

Are you thoughtlessly taking the chance of losing
business or social friends by such a practice?

A FAITHFUL SERVANT RETIRES

WHEN S. R. Adair resigned from the Park board of the city of Brainerd he concluded a service to the city that has been rendered efficiently and wholeheartedly through a period of fourteen years. Mr. Adair was appointed a member of the Park board when it was formed fourteen years ago and has served it through all these years with a splendid abandon that is not often duplicated. Citizens of Brainerd regretted that he had come to the conclusion that he had served as long as he ought to. Mr. Adair has always wished to have others take their part in civic affairs and after serving fourteen years he decided to withdraw so that someone else might have this opportunity of serving the city.

The Park board has made a splendid record during its existence and much of the credit for its fine record rests upon S. R. Adair. The funds devoted to park purposes are not any too generous, in fact the amount allowed from city funds is altogether too small to allow of those improvements that members of the board wish to have made from time to time. Three quarters of a mill does not go very far, and it is largely because of the close attention to the parks that has been given by Mr. Adair that it has been stretched out the way it has. He has tirelessly watched over the affairs of the board, has seen that monies expended were used to the best advantage, has offered good suggestions to the men who have done the work in the parks, and by his enthusiasm for this work has raised very considerable amounts that have been expended in making Brainerd more beautiful.

All of Mr. Adair's attention has not been given to Gregory park. He has sought to keep other grounds used for park purposes in good condition, and has always hoped that at some time more money might be devoted to this purpose, which would make possible attractive parks in other parts of the city.

Mr. Adair's conscientious service is highly appreciated by the residents of Brainerd who regret that he has felt that the place must be vacated in favor of someone else. During the fourteen years of his service he has freely given of his time to the affairs of the board and has helped to develop our city parks. It is to be hoped that the remembrance of this record will stimulate others to take a larger interest in civic affairs. In this way the life of our cities is made desirable—desirable because public-spirited citizens are ready to give of their time to making a city beautiful.

FEUDALISM AND SLAVERY OUTDONE

THE evidence that has been submitted goes to show that prisoners working in the Putnam Lumber company camp at Clara, Florida, were treated with such cruelty that it is hard to believe that such inhuman treatment could be meted out in a civilized country. Martin Tabert, a North Dakota boy, died as a result of the cruel treatment meted out to him.

If this boy had been convicted for some gravely serious crime against civilization people would not be so moved by the story of the atrocities that were worked upon him. But his crime was not any more serious than that of riding on a freight train, and for this he was arrested and imprisoned. Such a charge is not of the character that would prove that he was a hardened criminal or an inhuman wretch. Youths have committed this offense for the thrill of the experience, and others have committed it because they could not pay the fare from one point to the next. Of course he who breaks a law must pay the penalty that the law imposes on those who violate law. People are shocked not by the imprisonment but by the character of the imprisonment.

If the story told by this boy and his associates in the prison camp are true, then the conditions that existed in the time of feudalism and slavery have been outdone in Florida in the year 1923. Nothing less than revolution is felt in reading the horrible details of the punishments meted out to prisoners in this "peonage" camp. Beaten with many stripes, underfed, forced to work without shoes to safeguard their feet from the rough places in which they worked and the thorns that tore them until they bled, beaten with many stripes because, in one case cited, a damaged hoe handle broke off, forced to run from one working place to the next, without sufficient clothing to keep out the cold, with no bathing facilities so that they did not wash even their hands and faces for weeks, and sleeping three together under one dirty blanket, such are some of the conditions that men endured to atone for the crime of riding on a freight train.

This story of man's inhumanity, filled as it is with revolting details, will bring to an end this cruelty, but it will not restore the boy whose life was claimed by it, nor will it heal the wounds of those who, treated thus, have been wounded much deeper than the surface. Manhood is not easily retained under such debasing influences and respect for civilization is crushed out. The spark of love for country that burns in every man's breast is likely to be extinguished when such atrocities are perpetrated in the name of the law.

The spirit that is vindictive or vengeful is not a good one but it is hard to withhold the expression of a desire that those who have so betrayed American honor and justice, and have proved the brutality of their natures, should be required to submit to a measure of the cruelty that they have meted out to prisoners in their charge. Justice demands the punishment of those who brutally mistreated their prisoners and betrayed the law that they were pledged to respect. The lashes that fell on the backs of these men have been heard by a civilized people who will save their civilization by demanding the punishment of the guards.

WHEN the folly of the Ruhr expedition is seen by all parties, the expedition will be recalled. But like the man, described by H. G. Wells, who did not see the folly of careless driving until his automobile went into the ditch, Europe may be ditched before the nations become sensible.

THE dead live again, after an injection of a certain fluid, but there is no guarantee that process can be kept up indefinitely. The patient will die once too often.

A PERSON who can row five miles a day in a rowing machine that doesn't move, is equal to the person who can walk five miles a day with no place to go to.

GOLDEN EGGS!

And the birds who produce them at Kirkland.

EVERY day a modern version of the story of the fowl which laid the golden eggs is being enacted at Kirkland, in the heart of the poultry and berry-raising district of the Pacific Northwest—the land of no crop failures. Hundreds of Kirkland residents, whom we have located on their farms, are independent on the income derived from poultry. Others, just developing their ranches, live in Kirkland and have their business or employment in Seattle, a comparatively few minutes distant by boat or paved highway.

YOU CAN DO THE SAME; acquire one of these farms, $150 an acre upward, ON TERMS AS LOW AS A DOLLAR

A WEEK; NO INTEREST THE FIRST YEAR! Likewise, we'll build you an attractive home, clear your land, construct your poultry houses, on the same remarkable plan.

Larger farms of 10 and 20 acres at Camano, on Puget Sound, at $50 to $100 an acre. Easy driving distance from Seattle; within collecting radius of big milk condenseries and fruit cannery. Fine hunting, fishing, bathing.

Let us tell you the rest of the story. Fill out the coupon below, which obligates you in no way, and we will send you literature giving our wonderful plan and offering in detail.

GOLDEN EGGS!

And the birds who produce them at Kirkland.

EVERY day a modern version of the story of the fowl which laid the golden eggs is being enacted at Kirkland, in the heart of the poultry and berry-raising district of the Pacific Northwest—the land of no crop failures. Hundreds of Kirkland residents, whom we have located on their farms, are independent on the income derived from poultry. Others, just developing their ranches, live in Kirkland and have their business or employment in Seattle, a comparatively few minutes distant by boat or paved highway.

YOU CAN DO THE SAME; acquire one of these farms. $150 an acre upward, ON TERMS AS LOW AS A DOLLAR

A WEEK; NO INTEREST THE FIRST YEAR! Likewise, we'll build you an attractive home, clear your land, construct your poultry houses, on the same remarkable plan.

Larger farms of 10 and 20 acres at Camano, on Puget Sound, at $50 to $100 an acre. Easy driving distance from Seattle; within collecting radius of big milk condenseries and fruit cannery. Fine hunting, fishing, bathing.

Let us tell you the rest of the story. Fill out the coupon below, which obligates you in no way, and we will send you literature giving our wonderful plan and offering in detail.

Frank C. Palmer Sustained a Wound
Similar to That of Charles Nicholson

Frank C. Palmer, a newcomer to the city, and employed in the shoe store of George Ebinger in Northeast Brainerd, met with a gunshot wound while in the army overseas, that is remarkably similar to that of Charles Nicholson injured while deer hunting last fall.

Palmer was in the 22nd Division, 23rd Infantry and was shot on October 3rd, 1918 in the Argonne forest campaign. The bullet entered at the mouth and came out along the cheek, destroying several teeth in its path.

The injured man was in the hospital ten months. When he had recovered, it was found that in healing, his mouth had been disfigured, so that a second operation was necessary.

So well did the surgeons do their work that only a small scar on the cheek remains to tell the story.

Mr. Palmer likes Brainerd very much, and expects to bring his family to live in the city in the near future.

Great Scandinavian Story at Lyceum on Sunday and Monday

A picturization of a well known story by Johannes Linnankoski which has been read by millions of people in the Scandinavian countries, is truly an amazing play and has as astounding cast of Swedish, Finnish and Norwegian actors who simply live, not act, in their part on the screen. Featuring Lars Hanson "King of the Rapids" risking his life down the rapids on a single log. The picture is wonderful because it got comedy and drama and love and thrills. The thrill is something new something that has never been attempted in our American productions.

It is not known how long he clung to the ice before they heard his cries. Unless pneumonia sets in, physicians say he will recover.

SPORTS

REDS STRONGER THIS YEAR, SAYS FARRELL

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, April 7.—It took the Cincinnati Reds twenty-two weeks to get under way in the 1934 pennant race. It does not follow that Pat Moran's club would have had a part in the world's series, even if they had hit their real form before the week of September 23, but it is a cinch that a miserable start kept the 1919 champions from giving the New York Giants more of a tussle.

Tremendous handicaps were imposed upon the Reds last season by the injury which kept Pete Donahue, the best young right-hander in the National League, off duty for months, and the pesky holding out of Eddie Roush, a power on the offense and defense.

It holds good with every club that a good start, while not of vital importance, is a very valuable foundation, and for the Reds of 1934 a good getaway is of the utmost importance.

The club with which Pat Moran will seek his third pennant is stronger on paper than the Red outfit that finished second last year with a most exciting dash in the last two weeks of the race.

Moran has an exceptionally good outfield, a hustling young infielder, a reliable catching department and perhaps the most promising pitching staff in the National League.

Eddie Roush held out again this year, and it is not certain that he will be in uniform when the season starts, but Moran found out that it was possible to get along without him last year and the same should hold good this year. So if Roush remains away until August again the team should not be terribly handicapped.

At first glance, the attack of pneumonia which put Jake Daubert down for months and made it sure that he will not be able to start the season at first base, seemed like a bad break for the Reds, but there are many baseball men who believe that it might be a sheep in the garb of the well-known wolf.

Daubert had one of his best seasons last year. He was a wall on the defense and a power on the offense. Daubert, however, was due to crack several years ago, and, as in the case of Casey Stengel, the Giants outfielder, it is not safe to assume that he would be in for another great season this year.

Moran perhaps will put Fonseca on first base and many eastern critics believe if he—Fonseca—gets a real chance at first that Daubert will have a hard time getting back into the game when he is physically able to play. John McGraw has said that Fonseca is a fine second baseman, but that he is a great first baseman.

With Fonseca and Bohne both held as second basemen, Moran would have a perplexing problem in making a decision which one to play and which to keep on the bench. The incapacitation of Daubert, however, relieves Moran, for a time at least, of that problem.

"BILL" RUMLER, FORMER RANGE PLAYER, BANNED

Hibbing, April 7.—"Bill" Rumler, considered the greatest baseball player ever with a Range club, and home-run king of the league last season, seems now to be out in the cold. He was banned for five years from organized ball and he seems to be unable to catch in the outlaw midwest league, for some reason that his friends do not understand. The only explanation they can offer is that the new outlaw league has determined not to employ any player connected in any way with a baseball scandal and that Rumler is scratched because of his disbarment by President McCarthy of the Pacific coast league in 1919 for alleged betting on games.

BARNESVILLE BASEBALL TEAM TO BE STRONG

Barnesville, April 7.—The Barnesville baseball club will again be managed by Harry L. Jensen, and James Glasgow, its veteran pitcher, will again twirl for them. All the members of the team are local men and during the past two seasons they have lost but few games and have won several in which the opposing teams used two or more professional players. The team is expected to be stronger than any previous season.

REVISED MOTOR TAX UP FOR NEXT WEEK

St. Paul, April 7.—Revision of the motor vehicle tax law will be before both branches of the legislature early next week. The committee bill was sent back to the house today without change and is a special order for Monday, while the senate will consider the same measure Tuesday.

Increase of the basic rate from 2 per cent to 2½ per cent, is the principal source of trouble, and the house committee once voted to reduce the rate to 2½ per cent, but reconsidered after Chairman F. A. Green had shown

BOWLING NOTES

21 MINNEAPOLIS TEAMS TO AMERICAN BOWLING CONGRESS

Minneapolis, April 7.—Twenty-one quints, the largest representation that Minneapolis has ever had in an American Bowling Congress tournament, will leave Minneapolis tonight for Milwaukee.

The pick of the Mill city pin gatherers roll on the final five men shifts on Sunday and close the tournament Monday in the doubles and singles.

Counts this season average much higher than in any other A. B. C. competition. It's going to take some great shooting to disturb the leaders, but many of the Minneapolis teams are capable of turning the trick.

The Minneapolis contingent will leave tonight in special cars over the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul.

A. B. C. BOWLERS ARE NOW BACK TO NORMAL

Milwaukee, April 7.—Day by day it becomes more difficult for bowlers to roll their way into the list of leaders in the different events of the American Bowling Congress tournament. Yesterday's play brought out lower scoring than usual, only a few of the doubles teams going over the 1,200 mark. A. Trapp and S. P. Troyk, of Chicago, featured the duo event with 1,272. T. Atkins of Milwaukee, was the best in the individual shooting, rolling consistent games of 221, 224 and 211, for a total of 656.

the necessity for a revenue of approximately $7,200,000 in the fund for trunk highways. He showed that the 40 per cent maintenance outlay, added to administration costs, and payments on the interest and principal of county bond issues, will require $6,826,000 for the coming year, leaving only about $400,000 to apply on new construction. This eventually must match the federal aid of $1,800,000 for this year and $2,100,000 for next year.

An amendment to reduce the maximum tax from $12 to $10 was defeated in committee, 8 to 10. It then was pointed out that the increased rate shifts more of the tax burden to larger cars.

REDS STRONGER THIS YEAR, SAYS FARRELL

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, April 7.—It took the Cincinnati Reds twenty-two weeks to get under way in the 1922 pennant race. It does not follow that Pat Moran's club would have had a part in the world's series, even if they had hit their real form before the week of September 23, but it is a cinch that a miserable start kept the 1919 champions from giving the New York Giants more of a tussle.

Tremendous handicaps were imposed upon the Reds last season by the injury which kept Pete Donahue, the best young right-hander in the National League, off duty for months, and the pesky holding out of Eddie Roush, a power on the offense and defense.

It holds good with every club that a good start, while not of vital importance, is a very valuable foundation, and for the Reds of 1923 a good getaway is of the utmost importance.

The club with which Pat Moran will seek his third pennant is stronger on paper than the Red outfit that finished second last year with a most exciting dash in the last two weeks of the race.

Moran has an exceptionally good outfield, a hustling young infielder, a reliable catching department and perhaps the most promising pitching staff in the National League.

Eddie Roush held out again this year, and it is not certain that he will be in uniform when the season starts, but Moran found out that it was possible to get along without him last year and the same should hold good this year. So if Roush remains away until August again the team should not be terribly handicapped.

At first glance, the attack of pneumonia which put Jake Daubert down for months and made it sure that he will not be able to start the season at first base, seemed like a bad break for the Reds, but there are many baseball men who believe that it might be a sheep in the garb of the well-known wolf.

Daubert had one of his best seasons last year. He was a wall on the defense and a power on the offense. Daubert, however, was due to crack several years ago, and, as in the case of Casey Stengel, the Giants outfielder, it is not safe to assume that he would be in for another great season this year.

Moran perhaps will put Fonseca on first base and many eastern critics believe if he—Fonseca—gets a real chance at first that Daubert will have a hard time getting back into the game when he is physically able to play. John McGraw has said that Fonseca is a fine second baseman, but that he is a great first baseman.

With Fonseca and Bohne both held as second basemen, Moran would have a perplexing problem in making a decision which one to play and which to keep on the bench. The incapacitation of Daubert, however, relieves Moran, for a time at least, of that problem.

"BILL" RUMLER, FORMER RANGE PLAYER, BANNED

Hibbing, April 7.—"Bill" Rumler, considered the greatest baseball player ever with a Range club, and home-run king of the league last season, seems now to be out in the cold. He was banned for five years from organized ball and he seems to be unable to catch in the outlaw midwest league, for some reason that his friends do not understand. The only explanation they can offer is that the new outlaw league has determined not to employ any player connected in any way with a baseball scandal and that Rumler is scratched because of his disbarment by President McCarthy of the Pacific coast league in 1919 for alleged betting on games.

BARNESVILLE BASEBALL TEAM TO BE STRONG

Barnesville, April 7.—The Barnesville baseball club will again be managed by Harry L. Jensen, and James Glasgow, its veteran pitcher, will again twirl for them. All the members of the team are local men and during the past two seasons they have lost but few games and have won several in which the opposing teams used two or more professional players. The team is expected to be stronger than any previous season.

REVISED MOTOR TAX UP FOR NEXT WEEK

St. Paul, April 7.—Revision of the motor vehicle tax law will be before both branches of the legislature early next week. The committee bill was sent back to the house today without change and is a special order for Monday, while the senate will consider the same measure Tuesday.

Increase of the basic rate from 2 per cent to 2½ per cent, is the principal source of trouble, and the house committee once voted to reduce the rate to 2½ per cent, but reconsidered after Chairman F. A. Green had shown

BOWLING NOTES

21 MINNEAPOLIS TEAMS TO AMERICAN BOWLING CONGRESS

Minneapolis, April 7.—Twenty-one quintets, the largest representation that Minneapolis has ever had in an American Bowling Congress tournament, will leave Minneapolis tonight for Milwaukee.

The pick of the Mill city pin gatherers roll on the final five men shifts on Sunday and close the tournament Monday in the doubles and singles.

Counts this season average much higher than in any other A. B. C. competition. It's going to take some great shooting to disturb the leaders, but many of the Minneapolis teams are capable of turning the trick.

The Minneapolis contingent will leave tonight in special cars over the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul.

A. B. C. BOWLERS ARE NOW BACK TO NORMAL

Milwaukee, April 7.—Day by day it becomes more difficult for bowlers to roll their way into the list of leaders in the different events of the American Bowling Congress tournament. Yesterday's play brought out lower scoring than usual, only a few of the doubles teams going over the 1,200 mark. A. Trapp and S. P. Troy, of Chicago, featured the duo event with 1,272. T. Atkins of Milwaukee, was the best in the individual shooting, rolling consistent games of 221, 224 and 211, for a total of 656.

the necessity for a revenue of approximately $7,200,000 in the fund for trunk highways. He showed that the 40 per cent maintenance outlay, added to administration costs, and payments on the interest and principal of county bond issues, will require $6,820,000 for the coming year, leaving only about $400,000 to apply on new construction. This eventually must match the federal aid of $1,800,000 for this year and $2,000,000 for next year.

An amendment to reduce the maximum tax from $12 to $10 was defeated in committee, 8 to 10. It then was pointed out that the increased rate shifts more of the tax burden to larger cars.

MAE MURRAY

Release of Energy Found in Jazz

Mae Murray believes that jazz and the New Park, the popular star in dancing provides the "pep" that persons who are indoors a greater part of the day need. Miss Murray is herself a dancer of note, and was a star in Ziegfeld's Follies before she entered motion pictures. In her new Metro picture, "Fascination," presented by Robert Z. Leonard, which will be shown tonight and Sunday at the New Park, the popular star introduces a number of new dances. "Jazz and dancing are twins for most of us, anyhow," says Miss Murray. "They may criticize jazz music as 'savage' and everything else, but the fact remains that it stirs something inside of you that makes you feel like dancing.
